

NERCT 2021 “Banditry is a crime of opportunity”

The second NERCT series event in 2021 was held on December, 14th, focusing on banditry, organized crime, and terrorism in Nigeria. Dr. Al Chukwuma Okoli, a senior lecturer in Political Science at Federal University of Lafia, Nigeria, gave a highly insightful presentation on the topic, including his latest research findings which show a trend of an organic band between banditry and insurgency.

You can listen to Dr. Al Okoli’s presentation and the following discussion with the audience moderated by Yan St-Pierre as well as the closing statement by Uzoma Ikechukwu Kingsley below.

To receive information on the series, please contact us by email at info(at)nerct.com and you can also follow us on Twitter: @NERCT2022.
