

NERCT Speakers' Expertise on Boko Haram gets international Attention

Representatives of the Modern Security Consulting Group MOSECON GmbH, organizers of NERCT 2014, have received increasing attention by various international media. Indeed, MOSECON GmbH CEO Yan St-Pierre and MOSECON Africa Managing Director Uzoma I Kingsley have been quoted and asked for their analysis of the threat of Boko Haram in the wake of the kidnapping of the Chibok school girls.

Among the different media outlets were Al-Jazeera America, CNN, Voice of America, Christian Science Monitor, La Razòn (Madrid), La voz de Galicia (Spain) and La Hora (Chile).

The organizers and speakers of NERCT hope that sharing their knowledge and insight will help the Nigerian government and its allies in its fight to #Bringbackthegirls and against the evolving threat of Boko Haram.

As organizers of NERCT 2014, we are certain that all those involved in the workshop will contribute to improving Nigeria's security and make sure that no civilian comes to harm through dreadful acts of terrorism.
